4. Review: Simple Future tense

Ir + a + infinitive = going to do something

I am going to study. Voy a estudiar.

You are going to write. Vas a escribir.

They are going to be in Cartagena for 2 days. Van a estar en Cartagena por dos días.

Vamos a poner la mesa.

b. You(formal) are going to study every day.
Tú vas a estudiar todos los días.

c. I am going to write a book.
Voy a escribir un libro.

5.*The present progressive is formed with a conjugated form of estar followed by the present participle. The present participle is formed by adding -ando and -iendo to most -er and -ir verbs.

Subject + (estar) + present participle of verb = present progressive Conjugated (ando, iendo)

Estar = to be

1. estoy	4. estamos
2. estás	=
3. está	5. están

I am making the bed.
Susie is eating dinner.
The boys are dusting in the kitchen.

Estoy haciendo la cama.
Susie está comiendo la cena.
Los chicos están quitando el polvo en la cocina.

a los niños.

6. GUSTAR

- Remember gustar can only be conjugated in the 3rd person. (It and they) and it means "to be pleasing" we use it to say "like". You must ALWAYS use an object pronoun – me, te, le, nos or les – before the verb gustar. WHAT we like determines if you use gusta or gustan

We like Spanish class.

A nosotros nos gusta la clase de español.

I like to eat pizza.

A mi me gusta comer pizza.

Elena likes dogs and cats.

A Elena le gustan los perros y gatos.

Practica:

a. You (informal) like magazines.

A ti te gustan las revistas

b. Maria and I like to vacuum.

A Maria y yo nos gusta pasar la aspiradora.

c. My parents like to read the newspaper.

A mis padres les gusta leer el periódico.

d. Pedro likes cars.

A Pedro le gustan los coches.

7. Reflexive Verbs- used for actions you do to yourself. The infinitive in Spanish ends in –arse, -erse or –irse. You MUST have a reflexive pronoun – me, te, se, nos or se - in front of the conjugated verb for it to be reflexive. The pronoun may also be attached to the infinitive.

I shave everyday.

Me afeito todos los días.

Pablo showers at night

Pablo se ducha de la noche.

The girls like to put on make-up

Las chicas se gusta maquillarse.

I have to wash my hands.

Tengo que lavarme los manos.
